English and Sports - teenage holiday camp.

Last summer Marina went to a summer camp at Lake Baikal. The camp was organized by a group of enthusiastic young people who wanted teenagers from all over Russia to have fun with English, enjoy all kinds of sports and spend two weeks outdoors.

There were many activities to choose from. During the first two days the organisers showed the teens different kinds of sports – football, tennis, aerobics, baseball, hockey, volleyball and swimming. On the third day the teens chose one main sport activity. They could also add one or two activities that they would like to learn better. Marina chose volleyball and aerobics.

The language in the camp was English, so young people had the chance to speak English all day. From Monday to Friday there were also special English classes every morning. Each class lasted 90 minutes and there were six to ten students in one group. The classes were really interesting, the students had a lot of fun. They listened to the British radio stations, watched films in English and discussed the latest news. They even sang songs!

The food at the camp was healthy and very tasty. The teenagers helped to cook their own meals.

Marina enjoyed her stay very much and is planning to join this camp next summer.
