Sam's New School

Sam had recently moved to a new city with his family. The city was much bigger than the small town they used to live in. Sam missed his old friends, but he was also excited about making new ones. On his first day at the new school, Sam felt nervous. The school was huge, and there were so many students. He spent most of the day getting to know his new classmates and teachers.

During lunch, Sam sat alone at first, but soon, a boy named Max joined him. Max was friendly and introduced Sam to some other kids. They all talked about their favorite hobbies, and Sam discovered that he and Max both loved playing soccer. After school, they went to the playground and played soccer with some other kids. Sam was happy to have made a new friend so quickly.

By the end of the week, Sam felt more comfortable at his new school. He had made several new friends and even joined the school soccer team. Though he still missed his old town, Sam was starting to feel at home in the new city.

A. How did Sam feel on his first day at the new school?

1. He was excited and confident.
2. He was nervous.
3. He was bored.

B. Who was the first person to join Sam at lunch?

1. A teacher.
2. A girl named Emma.
3. A boy named Max.

C. What was Sam and Max's shared hobby?

1. Playing video games.
2. Playing soccer.
3. Reading books.

D. Where did Sam and Max go after school?

1. To the library.
2. To the playground.
3. To the cafeteria.

E. By the end of the week, how did Sam feel about his new school?

1. He was still unhappy.
2. He felt more comfortable.
3. He wanted to go back to his old town immediately.

Мы готовы начать.

«Hi, Dad. It's Sam. I'm at school, and I'm about to have a Science quiz. I've studied hard for it, so I'm confident I'll do well. After the Science quiz, I have a History lesson. It's quite interesting because we are learning about ancient civilizations. I hope we watch another documentary today; they are always fun. My last lesson today is Art, which I really enjoy. Our teacher, Mr. Johnson, is going to show us some famous paintings. After school, I'm planning to go to the library with my friend, Emily, to work on our group project. I'll be home by 4 p.m., and then I'll help with dinner.»
