Hello Granny and Grandpa,

I am having a great time in India. I like Indian food and I have learned a lot about Indian culture. But I am not in the capital city Delhi. We are travelling in the south of the country. Luckily, in early summer there are long dry periods with temperatures above 18 °C.

I am going to share my exciting experience of my visit to an Indian farm with you. Recently, my sister, I and our family friends, have been to an organic farm. I know that you like gardening and I believe it will be interesting for you to learn about this place. This place is called "Urban gardening". It is very far from Chennai, about 100 km. Chennai is the capital city of Tamil Nadu, the southernmost Indian state. We went to the farm by bus. It took us a long time to get there.

While we were travelling, the tour guide told us about organic farming.

I was excited to see the farm and the different kinds of plants. We were welcomed by the owner of the farm and he took us round his farm. This organic farm was divided into sections. He showed us different seeds and told us that each plant was planted in a section. He taught us how to pick lady fingers. They are small green pods from a tropical plant. We also tasted the lady finger raw but I didn't like it. And then, we went to the corn field. My friend, my sister and I ran around and played together with the farmer's son in the corn field. The farmer gave us some corn which we cooked in the hotel. Then we saw flat beans. After that we saw peanuts (a nut that grows underground in a thin shell). I liked raw peanuts. Finally, we went to the watermelon patch and pulled out a huge watermelon. We all ate the tasty watermelon. Yummy!

After seeing all these plants, we got on the comfortable bus and came back to the hotel. I was not tired at all. I enjoyed my trip to the farm and if I get a chance to visit the farm again, I won't miss it. This farm is a great place!

Back next weekend. See you soon.

Best wishes,

James

Dogs

Many experts think that around 20,000 years ago, wolves and humans started to live side by side. Over time, some wild animals became tamed. For example, wolves chased away dangerous animals. They ate food that humans A away. (THROW)

Dogs B humans' friends by accident. (NOT BECOME)

One of the reasons is that dogs are C than other animals. (CLEVER)

They can D quickly. (LEARN)

Most dogs learn new behavior in just four tries. If you have a dog, think of a new trick and try to teach it to do it. Keep the instruction enjoyable for the best results. When your dog E a command, offer a small treat or say "Good dog!" (DO)

How are you, Jane? It's Nora. I hope you are fine. I'm in Saint-Petersburg with my parents now. I have recently returned from my trip. It was great. And after returning the first thing I wanted to do was to leave you a message to tell you all about my trip. My destination was Veliky Novgorod which is much smaller than Saint-Petersburg, Nizhny Novgorod or Kazan. My trip lasted for one week. It is one of the oldest cities in Russia. It was first mentioned in the 9th century. It is around 180 km south of Saint-Petersburg and about 524 km north-west of Moscow. You can get there by train, bus or car. Even by plane. I travelled by train because it was the most comfortable way. Once I arrived at the railway station I saw breathtaking landscapes of the Volkhov river. But I was greatly impressed by historical sights. The city has many tourist attractions. The Kremlin, ancient churches, monasteries, museums, etc. First of all, I visited the Novgorod Kremlin which is the oldest surviving Kremlin in Russia. Though the city is not big I couldn't see all the major sights. I really want to visit the city again.
