MTV stands for Music Television. It is a cable television channel located in New York City and the first channel to show non-stop music videos.

MTV first started broadcasting on August 1, 1981. It went to air at 1201 am with the words "Ladies and gentlemen, rock and roll!". The first music video shown on MTV was "Video Killed the Radio Star" by The Buggles.

MTV became very popular during the 80s and the 90s. Attractive young men and women introduced the videos. They were called Vs (video jockeys) after the term DU (disc jockeys). A large number of rock bands and performers such as Madonna and Bon Jovi rose to fame, thanks to MTV.

As time passed, MTV introduced a variety of other shows. These included soap operas, reality shows and animated cartoons such as Beavis and Butthead. On August 1, 2006 MTV celebrated its 25th anniversary.

1. MTV didn't exist before August 1981.
